SUMMARY

Rangeet Pan is a research staff member at the IBM T.J. Watson Research Center, Yorktown Heights. His research interests are in the field of software engineering focusing on deep learning, modularity, and program analysis.

He received his Ph.D. degree from the Department of Computer Science at Iowa State University. His supervisor was Dr. Hridesh Rajan. His Ph.D. works are focused on understanding the characteristics of deep learning software and applying various programming techniques, e.g., enabling decomposition in deep learning-based models. His works are published at the top two research venues in software engineering, ESEC/FSE and ICSE. His work on decomposing deep neural networks into modules has been awarded the ACM SIGSOFT Distinguished Paper awards at ESEC/FSE, 2020. He has won 2nd place at the ACM Student Research Competition at ICSE, 2020. He has also been awarded the Research Excellence award and Robert Stewart Early Research Recognition from the Department of Computer Science at Iowa State University.

He is serving as a program committee member at ESEC/FSE, 2023 for the research track. Also, he will be serving as a program committee member at ICSE, 2024 for the SEIP track. He served as Web Chair for SPLASH, 2020 and 2021. He has reviewed several papers from the IEEE Transactions on Software Engineering (TSE), Mining Software Repository, and Springer Empirical Software Engineering.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

IBM Research – Research Staff Member (June 22 – Present)
Working with application modernization team

Iowa State University – Graduate Research Assistant (Aug 18 – June 22)
Previously Graduate Teaching Assistant for COMS 319, 309, and 342
Teaching as an independent instructor for COMS 342 (Principles of Programming Languages) in Spring 2022 (60+ students).

Microsoft Research - Intern – Software Analysis and Intelligence Group (SAINTes) (May 20 - Aug 20)
Mentor: Dr. Nachiappan (Nachi) Nagappan.

University of Houston - Research Assistant – Measurement and Evaluation group. (Jan 17 - May 18)

Infosys Limited - Test Engineer (March 13 - July 16)

EDUCATION

Iowa State University – Ph.D.

(Aug 18 – June 22)

GPA: 3.89

University of Houston – M.S.

(Aug 16 - May 18)

GPA: 3.93

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

COMS 309 - Software Development Practices:- Teaching Assistant

- Graded, mentored 40+ students from a class of 300+ student.

COMS 319 - Construction of User Interfaces:- Teaching Assistant

- Assignment creation, grading, lab setup, mentoring students.

COMS 342 – Principles to Programming Languages: - Teaching Assistant and Co-Instructor.

- Recitation, assignment, and solution creation, mentoring students.
- Teaching as an independent instructor in Spring 2022 (60+ students).

CONFERENCE TALKS

“Decomposing Convolutional Neural Network into Reusable and Replaceable Modules.”, ICSE, 2022, Pittsburgh, PA.
